December 14: Solo Piano Accompaniment Part Due Date

Good afternoon,

Thank you so much for your continued support as we wrap up our final week of instruction for the Fall Semester. You will get to see the fruits of our students' labors this Wednesday evening, when we broadcast our combined Winter Concert.

As we look ahead to next semester, students will be learning small ensemble chamber music before we dovetail our curriculum and introduce our full band music in preparation for our spring performances. When we return in January, families will receive a detailed schedule for our full ensemble rehearsals.

Winter Concert Broadcast

In order to respect copyright law, we will be posting the link to our Winter Concert in students' Google Classroom Streams on Wednesday evening beginning 6:30pm. Due to educational licensing restrictions, we ask that you please do not post the link publicly to your social media accounts. To share the link with long-distance family and friends, please send it privately. We appreciate your help in allowing us to continue doing what we love!

Looking Ahead...

We are finalizing plans with our campus and district administrators for our Spring semester, and we have some exciting events lined up for our students. We will update our Google Calendar as soon as we are able, and we will announce all events at the beginning of January. Here's a quick preview:

- January: Café Virtu(al)so & Online Silent Auction with Haggard & Wilson MS Bands
- Solo & Ensemble: Chamber music recital & contest
- April: UIL Concert & Sight Reading Contest
- May: Spring Concert & Awards Ceremony
